

COVERAGE EXTRAS FOR HOMEOWNERS

Protect your virtual world

AIG Private Client Group, a division of the member companies of American International Group, Inc. (AIG), is pleased to offer a range of coverage options to supplement your homeowners' insurance. Family CyberEdge helps you stay ahead of potential online threats, and facilitates your financial and emotional recovery in the unfortunate event that you are victimized.

Coverage highlights

Family CyberEdge includes protection from a broad range of incidents and helps you proactively manage your family's cyber footprint. Customize your limit of insurance for each of the coverage features listed below, from $50,000 - $250,000. Please note that coverage extends to events discovered during your policy term or no later than 30 days past its expiration.

- Data restoration
You can be reimbursed for costs incurred for data restoration expenses after a cyber attack on you or your family's personal computer system, including wireless and mobile devices. Through our partnership with K2 Intelligence, you can access help to restore data and remove any malware on your personal computing devices. (Minimum deductible: $1,000.)
- Cyber extortion
This coverage reimburses money paid by you or a family member to terminate a cyber extortion threat against you or a family member. It also provides access to an expert cyber consultant to assist if a criminal demands ransom in exchange for your data. In addition, we cover the costs for the cyber professional to conduct an investigation to determine the cause of the threat. (No deductible required; you can choose one to control costs.)
- Crisis management and reputation restoration
If cyber extortion or a similar cyber attack affects your reputation or that of a family member, we can reimburse the cost of hiring a professional crisis management firm. (No deductible required; you can choose one to control costs.)
- Cyberbullying expenses
If you or a family member is a victim of cyberbullying, we can cover the cost of related expenses including psychiatric services; professional digital forensic analysis to aid in prosecution; professional cyber security consultant services; lost salary due to wrongful termination; public relations service fees; and temporary relocation expenses. (No deductible required; you can choose one to control costs.)

In addition, Family CyberEdge coverage includes credit monitoring services for up to two family members per household, provided by our identity service provider CyberScout. Monitoring draws from three credit bureaus, public and court records, and additional records that include personal data. You don't have to have a claim to benefit from this added layer of protection.
